Maya Chronologies

The Maya were so exact in their time reckoning that it is possible to date their monuments with respect to la. other to the present day. Difficulties arise in translating Maya Chronologies into modern Chronologies.

The zero date of the Maya Chronological era, "4 Ahau 8 Cumhu," was set at Feb. 10, 3641 BC by Charles P. Bowditch & Thomas A. Joyce. It was set at Oct 14,
